BOOMING GEN. BLANCO

PACIFICATION OF CUBA CERTAIN.

He Thinks This Winter's Campaign Will Accomplish the Pacification of Most of the Island—Feeling of Spain Toward the United States—Other News Relating to Cuba.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The marquis of Apezpiguia, the Conservative leader in Cuba, who is in New York on his way home from Spain, takes a hopeful view of the Cuban situation, now that General Blanco is in command. He thinks this winter's campaign will accomplish the pacification of most of the island. "I think," he said, "now that General Blanco is in command, that a vigorous campaign will be begun and such force will be used that the new plans for the government of Cuba will soon be put in operation. I think that after the campaign of this winter most of the island will be pacified. Spain has plenty of resources. She will send more men if necessary. Rather than suffer her dignity to be offended Spain will fight to the last."

"What is the feeling of Spain toward the United States?" was asked.

"The Spaniards," he said, "who live under a strongly centralized government, find it difficult to distinguish between acts committed by individuals and acts committed by the nation. The fact that filibustering expeditions have been equipped in this country has caused the Spaniards some surprise. Still, on the whole, the feeling in Spain toward the United States is friendly. The people of the United States must remember that Spain is engaged in a war and that incidents which would otherwise be considered unimportant may prove very irritating. On the other hand, the United States being so near the seat of war is apt to feel very strongly concerning the Cuban situation. I think that Spain appreciates that thoroughly."

"What effect do you think the release of the Competitor's prisoners will have upon the relations between Spain and the United States?"

"It will undoubtedly create the friendliest of feelings," he replied. "The question was decided impartially and upon its merits by the Spanish authorities. I was surprised," he continued, "to read the utterances of Hannis Taylor. I had supposed when I met him in Madrid that he was a friend of Spain. His statements concerning the constitution of Spain, the practices of the country and the character of the Spanish people are not gracious and certainly unfair. His recent speech saying the United States should recognize the independence of Cuba is surprising."

COMPETITOR PRISONERS.

All of Them Reach New York City and Are Now Free.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The Competitor prisoners reached here last night. The released men wore the clothes in which they were clad at the time of their capture on April 25, 1893, at Eracoras, San Cayetano, Cuba.

Another happy passenger on the Saratoga was Julio Arteaga Y. Quesada, the young Cuban insurgent who was ordered to be shot by Weyler, but was pardoned by General Blanco, a friend of the prisoner's father.

The six men who had escaped the fate of the Virginian captives were greeted upon their arrival in New York by an enthusiastic crowd, who gave them a hearty welcome. The poor wretches were too weak to respond to the cheers which had been given in their honor. Captain Laborde's brother was one of those assembled on the dock. The meeting between the brothers was a touching one. The friends of the others cried with joy as they grasped the hands of the released prisoners, whose eyes were sunken, faces pallid and forms emaciated. Representatives of the Cuban junta were also present, and they added their greeting to the men.

This is the story which young Quesada told concerning his release:

"While a member of the army corps in the Pinar del Rio district, I became possessed of information to the knowledge of which I think I owe the saving of my life. Last March I wandered about half a mile away from our hospital tent in search of some herbs, of which I desired to make medicine, when a detachment of Spanish infantry captured me. The noise made by my struggle to free myself aroused my 12 companions and they rushed to my assistance. During the fight that followed my friends were beaten and one of them was killed."

"After the conflict was over, I was bound and thrown on the ground and beaten unmercifully. I was told if I would confess where my comrades had their dynamite stored, they would stop beating me. This I declined to do, and seeing that they could not force a confession from me, they sent me to Artemisa prison, where I was tried and sentenced to be shot."

"It was at this juncture that my knowledge stood me in good stead. Two prominent Spanish generals, one a brigadier general whose name I do not care to mention, and General Arolas, principally concerned themselves in my release. They feared me because they knew I had disclosures to make which would ruin them. They thought that if I had to die, I would tell what I knew."

"These men are either base cowards or their desire to hold their positions overcame their scruples. They were in constant communication with the insurgent generals, having written letters to them; which I saw while in the Pinar del Rio district, in which they stated that they wanted to make arrangements by which Spanish soldiers would not be attacked in the districts controlled by them. In return, the insurgents were to have free access to the trocha and be permitted to pass at will. This proposition was accepted and in this way we were able to keep in constant communication with Gomez, Maceo and Garcia."

"We had about 5,000 men, under command of General Nunez, while the Spaniards had between 40,000 and 70,000, yet we were well able to cope with them."

The friends of young Quesada were surprised to learn that he had secured release by giving away a secret which betrayed the allies of the insurgents in the Spanish army. It was this information and not General Blanco's friendship for the late Professor Quesada that secured his pardon.

Probably the most wretched of the Competitor's crew is Ona Melton, the newspaper correspondent, whose intention on going to Cuba was not to participate in the war, but to report the true situation of that country. In describing his capture and subsequent treatment, Melton said that when the first shot was fired by the Spanish gunboat he and two of his companions lowered a small boat and tried to escape. They were pursued and captured a short distance from the shore. On board the gunboat they were cruelly bound with ropes and were prodded with sharp-pointed sticks, which punctured their flesh. They were afterwards thrown into a cell and fed but once a day.

The men are Captain Alfredo Laborde, William Gilda, Ona Melton, William Leavitt and Charles Barnett, an Englishman. The five men were in fairly good health and excellent spirits on reaching quarantine. Captain Laborde suffers somewhat from paralysis, which he contracted during his long confinement in the Cabanas fortress.

Joseph A. Springer, the United States vice consul at Havana, was also a passenger on the Saratoga. Mr. Springer declined to talk for publication.

Officials Are Mute.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—A party of insurgents attacked the Spanish outposts of Havana and a sharp engagement followed, says the Havana correspondent of the Herald. The sounds of firing caused great excitement in Havana, as it is known that large rebel forces are quartered near the city. Details of the engagement are not known, but it is said that the insurgents destroyed much property before sufficient Spanish forces were concentrated to drive them away. The loss in killed or wounded is not known, as officials refuse to give out information.

Criticizing Palma.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—A special to The Herald from Madrid says: The letter of Thomas Estrada Palma, in opposition to the proposed scheme for Cuban autonomy, has been widely commented upon here. A member of the cabinet said in an interview: "Senor Palma's arguments are invalidated by his declaration that his party is firmly resolved to reject any possible form of autonomy which Spain might offer. This remark puts him out of court, as it is useless trying to satisfy a man who is determined to remain discontented."

Is Weyler a Traitor?

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Standard warns the Spanish government that a personage capable of exacting homage from such diverse elements as the Carlism, advanced Republicans, Conservatives and Workers' associations, as did General Weyler at Corunna, is capable of developing into a popular hero, who may upset the government, and even the dynasty, unless care is taken.

GUATEMALA AND THE CHINESE.

The Country Taking Measures Looking Toward Exclusion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—A correspondent writing from Guatemala City under date of Nov. 6, says: The government of this country is taking steps tending to the exclusion of Chinese, who lately have been getting over the frontiers in large numbers.

For this purpose the government has promulgated a decree providing that within two months all persons of Chinese nationality within the limits of the republic will have to present themselves to be enrolled in a registry which will be opened for the purpose. After the expiration of the term fixed every Chinaman, who, on being requested by the local authorities, does not present a certificate, will be expelled from the nation.

Outbreak Seems Imminent.

Houghton, Mich., Nov. 23.—An outbreak seems imminent at the Atlantic mine. The company has 75 Italians from the Franklin mine on the ground ready to take the places of the striking Finns and the latter announce bloodshed will ensue at the first attempt to set the Italians to work. There are now nearly 200 Finns on a strike, all of them being strong and determined men. The Atlantic management will not give the strikers places again on any terms and will attempt to put the Italians at work on the night shift.

Forest Fire.

CHELSEA, I. T., Nov. 23.—A forest fire is raging two miles south of this place. The fire started yesterday and by night had burned over a large area, doing hundreds of dollars of damage to farms and forest. The farmers have turned out en masse and are fighting the flames with vigor, but it is still beyond control and is gradually working toward town. No lives have been reported lost.

MR. GARY IS PLEASED.

With the Discussion of His Postal Savings Bank Plan.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Postmaster General Gary is receiving many letters regarding the postal savings bank proposition strongly urged by him in his annual report. Many people throughout the country have written him, commenting on this projected radical extension of the postal service, and have submitted some suggestions calculated in their opinion to make the scheme more feasible. As a whole the correspondence indicates a rather general commendation and some well known economists and financiers numbered among the postmaster's friends and who have heretofore opposed measures of this character have, in letters just received, given a qualified endorsement.

Postmaster General Gary expects some legislation by congress on this subject, possibly at the next session and believes that the extended discussion which has been given it throughout the country will render material assistance to this end. In the course of an interview with the Associated Press, Mr. Gary made answer to some of the comments that have been made on the subject. He said:

"I am very much interested and not a little gratified at the public criticisms, as reflected by the newspapers, of my recommendations in respect to postal savings depositories. I find, of course, that the great majority of the papers are favorable to the project, but I am no less pleased with those which have taken an adverse ground. No one disputes that the project is beset by a good many difficulties and it is only by discussion, full and general, that they can be overcome and removed."

DEED OF FOUR MASKED MEN.

An Indiana Man Bound, Gagged and Robbed.

MUNCIE, Ind., Nov. 23.—Early yesterday morning four masked men battered in the rear door of an isolated saloon on Kilgore avenue, in which John House, the proprietor, was sleeping. House, who is 60 years of age, was terribly beaten on the head with a blunt instrument and then his hands and feet were securely bound. A gag was placed in his mouth and chloroform used. The robbers then blew open the safe and secured $500 and three valuable watches.

Near the same saloon at 6 o'clock Sunday evening, John Moore, a retired farmer, was driving along when a man stopped his horse and demanded his money. Moore lashed his horse into a run and the point of a shaft caught in the highwayman's clothing and carried him quite a distance. Finally the shaft broke and the robber fell under the wheels of the buggy. Moore did not investigate the extent of the man's injuries.

FIRE IN BALTIMORE.

Five-Story Building Destroyed in Which One Life Was Lost.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 23.—The entire contents of the five-story building, 317 and 319 North Howard street, occupied by William H. Scott, popularly known as "Great Scott," as a furniture store, were yesterday destroyed by fire in which one woman, Mrs. Susan E. Maxon of 1536 William street, lost her life. The interior of the building occupied by Mr. Scott, which is owned by Michael F. McCormick, was also completely demolished, although the four walls remain standing.

The total damage to that and adjoining property is estimated at about $135,000.

Theosophists Trying to Save Durant.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—The Theosophists of San Francisco are taking a very active interest in the fate of Murderer Durant. It is a tenet of their faith that capital punishment is wrong and they are getting up a petition praying Governor Budd to stay the execution and to commute his sentence to life imprisonment. The petition was prepared by Dr. Jerome A. Anderson, president of the San Francisco Theosophical society, and it has already received a number of signatures.

Plug Tobacco Trust.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The plug tobacco trust is in process of formation. It embraces the Lorillards, Paul Sorg, the Liggetts and nearly all principal plug tobacco manufacturers in the country. The parties named have already signed an agreement to pool properties and manufacture. The capital stock will be $12,000,000. Representatives are here arranging some details. It is estimated the cost of production will thus be reduced 30 per cent.

British Ship Probably Lost.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—The belief that the British ship Taymouth has been lost at sea has been strongly confirmed by the fact that she was not sighted by any one of the 16 deep water vessels which have arrived here within the past 48 hours. Already 80 per cent reinsurance has been paid on the Taymouth, and tomorrow 20 per cent more will probably be paid.

Death of a Manufacturer.

AURORA, Ill., Nov. 23.—Lucius P. Hoyt, founder of Aurora and a wealthy and widely known manufacturer of wood working machinery, died yesterday morning, aged 58 years.

Thrown and Killed.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 23.—John Dawson, a prominent planter and a United States pensioner, was killed by being thrown over his horse's head. His neck was broken.

LYNCHING AVOIDED.

How a South Dakota Affair Ended Without Bloodshed.

ELK POINT, S. D., Nov. 23.—A lynching was narrowly avoided here yesterday evening. Ed Stroud, who eoped with a 16-year-old girl, leaving his family in destitute circumstances, was discharged by Justice Smythe owing to lack of evidence, and when the facts became known citizens were aroused. Ed Carter, the father of the girl, procured a rope and started in search of Stroud. When he found him he proceeded to beat him, and in a short time the streets were thronged with excited people yelling "lynch him."

Stroud managed to break away, but was soon overtaken and again pounded and kicked. Officers finally arrived on the scene and rescued the victim just as he was about exhausted. He was taken to the county jail and a physician was summoned, who pronounced him badly injured, though not fatally.

The mob gathered in front of the jail and made all sorts of threats, but no further trouble was caused.

PEACE OR WAR.

Action of the Next Congress Is of Vast Importance.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Two nations are awaiting with anxiety the developments of the attitude of congress upon the Cuban question. The course pursued by the senate and the house of representatives will determine in a large measure whether the relations between the United States and Spain are to continue cordial or whether they are to be strained to such an extent as to produce hostilities.

It is believed that the house will prove to be the safeguard of the administration. As to the position of the administration there is no longer any doubt. Spain has made substantial concessions to public sentiment in the United States. The new ministry in Spain asks that time be allowed to determine whether peace can not be restored by the operation of this new policy, and President McKinley believes it is the duty of the United States to grant the request.

FEVER DYING OUT.

Only Six New Cases and One Death in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 23.—There were six new cases of yellow fever yesterday with one death, that of George G. Blackford, at a private hospital.

Dr. S. R. Olliphant, president of the board of health, returned yesterday from Washington and is positive President McKinley will bring about the appointment of a commission to study the fever in Cuba.

The Texas and Pacific attempted to run a passenger train through to Texas yesterday, but it was stopped at Boyce, La. Through service will again be abandoned, but they will run a train to Baton Rouge junction to connect with another train going west. The Piedmont Air line is now running through sleepers to New York. A number of quarantines will be raised by the 25th, and all quarantines will be over by Dec. 1.

Yellow Fever at Pensacola.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Nov. 23.—Three privates of the first artillery are now in the hospital at Fort Barrancas with yellow fever. Trained nurses have been sent from here to attend them and they are all reported to be doing nicely. The opinion is gaining ground that the present infection originated at the fort from the tearing down during the past summer of the old hospital in which many yellow fever patients were treated years ago.

Fever Dying Out in Mobile.

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 23.—Mobile people are coming home in droves and business has revived and is very brisk. The Battle House, which has been closed for two months, opened yesterday. The theaters will open Thursday. There has been no killing frost, but the fever has practically died out. Yesterday's record is no new cases and no deaths.

Ended in Eight Rounds.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 23.—Jack McClelland of Pittsburgh, fought Joe Bernstein of New York eight rounds to a draw last night before a large audience. The bout was one of the best seen for some time. It was lively from start to finish and considerable science was displayed by both men. McClelland fought at 122 pounds, while Bernstein was 10 pounds heavier.

Boston Capitalist Accidentally Killed.

ATLANTA, Nov. 23.—H. Wiswall, the Boston capitalist, who was injured by falling into the cellar of the Grand Opera House last week, died at the Grady hospital yesterday morning at 1 o'clock. He never regained consciousness sufficiently to tell of the accident and it is not known exactly how he was injured. His body was sent to Boston.

May Answer For His Crime.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 23.—Henry Lucas, who brutally murdered his wife 15 years ago, is now about to fall into the clutches of the law. He was located at Bowling Green. He has been at liberty for 15 years. Lucas out his wife's head off one night she was sleeping. The clew was furnished by his own little daughter, now grown.

Friction With Italy.

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 23.—The Italian warship Umbria, now at Buenos Ayres, has received orders to proceed at once to Spiritu Santo to prevent further anti-Italian demonstrations there. The friction with Italy has become serious.

CHANGES IN CABINET.

What May Take Place in McKinley's Official Family.

JUSTICE FIELD'S RETIREMENT.

There Is Opposition to This Movement by a Certain Element—The President Particularly Impressed With Postmaster General Gary—Sherman to Remain Under Any Circumstances.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—As the time approaches for the retirement of venerable Justice Field from the supreme court bench, speculation is not only lively here as to his probable successor, but the rearrangement of the cabinet in the event of Attorney McKenna being appointed to be Justice Field's successor. There is opposition to his promotion, and the talk is that Mr. Elkins and other senators have urged advised the president to select some one else. The opposition is based chiefly on the decision of the attorney general regarding Section 22 of the tariff law, levying discriminating duties against the Canadian Pacific and other railroads.

Report has it that President McKinley would rather have Postmaster General Gary remain in the cabinet than be the new senator from Maryland. It is the prevailing impression in Washington that, no matter what changes may be made in the cabinet, Secretary Sherman will not consent to retire for the benefit of Judge Day or any other man.

The best opinion now is that if the president transfers Judge McKenna he will endeavor to find another Pacific coast man for the cabinet, and it is possible Secretary Long may be appointed attorney general, and the new adviser of the president will take the navy portfolio.

RAILROAD TO ALASKA.

A Multitude Expected to Rush There in the Spring.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Henry L. Martens of New York, who represents Tacoma and New York capitalists interested in building a railroad from Dyea over the Chilkoot pass to Crater lake, is here. He says the first eight or nine miles of road out from Dyea would be the usual railroad gauge construction. It will end at the mouth of Dyea canyon. Sixty men are now engaged on this work at $3 a day.

"This division of our railroad," he said, "will be an aerial tramway from the mouth of Dyea canyon over the Chilkoot pass. This tramway is now being built at the east. It will be shipped by the way of Seattle and be placed in proper condition on its arrival at the Dyea canyon early in January next. The capacity of the road will be 250 passengers and 150 tons of freight daily."

Mr. Martens estimates that 75,000 people will go to the Klondike country next spring by the way of Dyea.

Wharfage Sinks Away.

LISBON, Nov. 23.—At 6 o'clock yesterday morning, a big masonry wharf, having a frontage of 300 meters on the river Tagus, opposite the customhouse, suddenly subsided and completely disappeared on the river bed. An official examination has disclosed the fact that the wharf, which was recently constructed at a cost of $50,000, rested on mud. Soundings to the depth of 36 meters revealed no solid foundation. Fortunately no one was hurt in the collapse.

Suing a Railroad.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 23.—James Foley of Savannah is suing the Central railroad of Georgia for $5,000 for damages. Foley bought a seaplane's ticket from Atlanta to Savannah and was put off the train. The ticket was issued by the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad in Chicago to Jacksonville. Foley supplied his name as purchaser.

Two Hours to Leave Town.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23.—Tom Small, once a famous jockey, was tried in the police court yesterday on the charge of begging and given two hours to leave town. He was the oldest jockey on the turf and some years ago was worth $40,000 and was a familiar figure at Latonia, Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend. He is 69 years old.

Smuggler Mine Fire Under Control.

ASPEN, Colo., Nov. 23.—The fire which started a week ago yesterday in the Smuggler mine is to all appearances under control. But little smoke is now issuing from the shaft and the management think that within 24 hours the work of cleaning the mine of smoke and gas can be begun.

INDICATIONS.—Showers in the morning, followed by fair weather in the afternoon; light northerly winds.

HON. M. E. INGALLS, of the C. and O., one of the ablest Democrats in the country, recently stated the following:

The result of the recent campaign shows conclusively that the South will again drift back to the Democracy and free silver. Continuing he said that the great danger now is in the tendency to drift into a new banking business law, which, to the country, will be fraught with danger.

JUDGE WALL was one of the prominent Kentucky Democrats invited to attend the conference in Louisville last week, and was appointed the Ninth district's representative on the committee selected to look after the interests of the party in this State, and urge upon all members of the party to give their aid and support to the Louisville Dispatch. The Dispatch has certainly done grand work for Democracy, and it is to the interest of the party that it should be strengthened for coming battles. This can be done by subscribing for it, and getting your friends to do likewise.

"The industrial revolution involved in the appearance of American steel in England has created a sensation out of all proportions greater there than here," remarks the National Labor Tribune. "How great the sensation is becoming apparent in the reports received from the English iron district. English newspapers see in it the ultimate supremacy of our steel trade the world over. English steel masters face on one side the cheap labor and technical skill of Germany and Belgium, and on the other the dear labor and the cheap materials of this country. English coke costs over $2 a ton, where Connellsville is $1.25 to $1.50. Yet our best furnaces use only 1,000 pounds of coke to the ton of steel, when English furnaces use 2,000 pounds. English newspapers are asking if the invasion is to be permanent. As it is based on a cheaper cost-sheet, it has certainly come to stay. No country in the world can compete with $20 steel rails or billets at $15."

Prominent Southern Business Man Dead. ATLANTA, Nov. 23.—Mr. John Ryan, Sr., a pioneer citizen of Atlanta, and one of the richest and most widely known men in the south, died at his home in this city at an early hour yesterday morning after a protracted illness caused by paralysis. Mr. Ryan made a great success as a business man in Atlanta and up to his retirement his name was as well known in the great commercial centers of the country as that of any man in the south. Mr. Ryan was born in Dublin, Ireland, about 71 years ago and emigrated to America, coming to Atlanta in 1852.

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 23.—Deputy United States Marshal F. J. Carpenter, with a posse of 12 men, has arrived in the city with 15 illicit distillers who were captured in Scott county. The officers destroyed four of the stills and about 4,000 gallons of whisky and beer. The officers got the drop on the men and captured them without trouble. The stills were all located within a few miles of each other.

Death of Professor O'Toole. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Dr. Michael O. O'Toole, the distinguished surgeon and oculist, is dead. The cause of death was pneumonia. He was ill only four days. He was a native of Wexford, Ireland, and was 65 years of age. He was a member of many scientific societies and an active worker in the Irish cause.

HARD ON WIVES.

California Supreme Court Decides a Woman May Be Compelled to Support Her Husband.

[Exchange]

Under a recent decision of the Supreme Court of California it has been established that a woman may be compelled to support her husband.

This ruling of the court was confirmed by the best legal authority of the State, and was based upon peculiar circumstances in the case.

It was that of an elderly couple living in Los Angeles County. The husband is so aged and infirm as to be unable to provide for himself, and not long ago was deserted altogether by his wife. He brought suit against her for maintenance before the Superior Court of the county, and obtained a judgment, ordering the payment to himself of a monthly allowance of $24.

Further than that, after an appeal, the judgment has been affirmed by the Supreme Court of the State.

TAKING effect December 1st, the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company will discontinue the practice of extending the return portion of local round trip excursion tickets sold between stations along the Ohio river and to Cincinnati. The return portion of these tickets, however, will be redeemed should passengers fail for any reason to use them, at the difference between regular one way rate, and the rate at which the round trip ticket was sold.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY DAVIS, of the Interior Department, rendered an important decision Saturday reversing the decision of the Commissioner of Pensions in the claim of Charles A. Fry and Sarah E. Fry, minor children of John Fry, of Company E. Twentieth Kentucky Infantry. The Pension Bureau, during the last administration, rejected the claim on the ground that the evidence failed to show that the mother of the claimants was the lawful wife of the soldier. It did show that they had lived together as man and wife for ten years or more in Kentucky and Illinois, had stated they were married as such, but there was no direct evidence of a marriage having been solemnized.

Open House
For Lovers of Beauty.

The popularity of plain stuffs this season has brought out a wonderful variety of rich fabrics in plain weaves—a counter full of beauty to help dress decisions. Prices start at 25c. and make many stops to the best at $1.50. Plaids are in charming contrast. High colors are subdued with quiet overstripes, dull plaids are brightened with silk. Big and little, bright and sober plaids, Novelty Dress Goods at 50c. is giving the dollar goods a race. They go far beyond any ever before seen in all our business experience. There are more than twenty-five different patterns, and their beauty gives them easy standing with dollar goods.

WOMEN'S JACKETS.

It's a pleasure to pick from such a collection. There isn't a rightness missing. Beautiful Kersey Jackets in late fall and winter shades, handsome silk lining, strapped seams, copy of Parisian style. If asked to pay $15 you'd not think it a penny too high. We shall sell it at $10. Handsome Melton Jackets, heavy-weight cloth, silk lined, high storm collar. Ordinary buying would force a merchant to get $10. We shall sell it at $8.50. Dozens of other Jackets in the collection quite as remarkable, all of which command your personal inspection.

DOUBLE TRACKING.

The C. and O. Opens Three Miles at This Point To-day—In Time the Entire Road Will Have Double Track.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company this afternoon at 2 o'clock opens three miles of double track extending from the Maysville depot to the fair grounds, east of Maysville.

It was only about sixty days ago that the company opened sixteen miles of double track between Ashland and Huntington.

The policy of the management to make permanent improvements out of the earnings of the company is clearly shown in these additions to the property. Eventually, the system of laying double track in sections of from three to twenty miles, in territory where traffic seems to demand it most, will provide the C. and O. with double track from one end to the other without increase in capitalization or bonded indebtedness of the company.

The company has had a large force of employes at work for several months on the improvements at this point. A freight depot has been erected at the corner of Front and Shultz streets, a freight yard opened and additional siding put down west of the depot, the bridge and fill at Limestone Creek widened, safety gates erected at Poplar and Lexington streets, and the additional track put down and ballasted from the depot to the fair grounds. The expenditures for these improvements amount way up into the thousands of dollars.

We Knew We Had a Good Thing

In the stock of fine Clothing we recently bought by electric light. There is so much clap-trap Clothing advertising in vogue at present that we refrained from saying too much about this purchase. We simply called your attention to it and said look in our window display, see the goods and note the CASH price on them. We knew we would sell some of them; the continued warm weather left a doubt as to selling a great many now. The doubt is dispelled. Since the day we opened this purchase and made our window display our store has been crowded with customers anxious to secure these unheard-of bargains.

We advise our friends who contemplate buying a Fall or Winter Suit and Overcoat not to let this opportunity slip. It is only one in a long time where circumstances arise that enable merchants to secure

GOOD THING TO TIETO

Latest Report Shows the Paducah Building Trust's Stability.

Directors Bring Good Cheer—The Plans Somewhat Revised, But the Association Exists on its Same Old Firm Basis.

[Paducah News.]

The extent to which capital has of late years been compelled to leave this State and seek investment elsewhere, owing to unfriendly laws and a more unfriendly interpretation of them, has for some time been a matter of gravest concern to thoughtful men of business, having at heart the State's welfare. When it is considered that approximately $12,000,000 have been invested in Building and Loan Associations of Kentucky, and that through their channels this money has been distributed among the people, thus stimulating commercial enterprises of all kinds; the general alarm felt at the prospect of the associations affected by it being compelled to quit business may be readily appreciated. It is therefore a matter for congratulation that the Paducah Building Trust Company, in which many of our citizens are interested and which for good management, solidity and reasonable profits has a record unsurpassed, has been able to devise a way to continue its business.

To the Stockholders of the Paducah Building Trust Company: Brought about by the final action of the Court of Appeals, probably the most important meeting of your Board of Directors in the company's history has just adjourned. Though other companies have assigned at immense loss and quit business, the reputation of the city of Paducah, not one of whose financial institutions has ever failed, and the pride that your directors, selected from various parts of Kentucky and Arkansas, feel in never yet having linked their names with failure or engaged in a disreputable business, forbid them to entertain any thought but a continuance of our business; unless forced to do otherwise by a deprivation of that confidence and loyalty which the stockholders have heretofore, amid trying times, uniformly shown them, and which your directors may therefore reasonably expect to continue.

Whatever may be said of other companies, it can not be truthfully said of our company that it has thus far ever failed to perform its every contract according to its terms and the law governing the rights of the members. Nay, more; however short other companies may have fallen of realizing their promises to their stockholders, it can not be truthfully said that our company has failed to manage its business in such a manner as it would not also have realized for all concerned everything promised, had the conditions under which it began business remained unchanged.

We are, however, now confronted with a condition for which we are in no wise responsible, but which is due solely to an unfriendly interpretation of the law under which we have operated, by a divided court of last resort in this State. To this decision we must submit. Prevented by it from pursuing a plan of operation which would have enabled us completely to fulfill our promises, it is apparent to every sensible person that to continue business successfully we must now revise our plan and ourselves adjust our business to the law as interpreted or have our business settled for us at immense loss by the court. Which method do you, as a sensible person and a member of a purely mutual concern, prefer?

Having therefore revised our plan, we now propose to convert our 10 per cent. and 8 per cent. paid up stock into 6 per cent. paid up stock, interest payable quarterly. We propose also to convert our seven years installment stock at its withdrawal value into 6 per cent. paid up stock, or into our installment stock guaranteed to mature in five and one-half years, or in ten years, at the option of the stockholder. We propose likewise to convert all loans made on our seven years installment stock into loans on stock maturing in ten years; thus making it easier and cheaper for the borrower to carry his loan.

On such a basis, with a small charge of at least 5 cents per share monthly dues on all stock for the maintenance of the company's organization, and neither promising nor attempting to give to the stockholders more than it can earn, there is no good reason, considering its splendid condition as shown by our last semi-annual statement, why our company, which has won and merited the support of its friends and stockholders, should not continue to earn at least as much as any other reputable financial institution of the same character in this State. The fact, however, that we shall hereafter increase our business in the State of Arkansas where the law not favored by our

Court of Appeals is upheld, will undoubtedly enable our company to do more for its stockholders than can be done by any company operating alone in Kentucky.

Send in, therefore, at once to your local Secretary or to the home office your old stock and receive in place of it either 6 per cent. paid up stock or five and a half years or ten years' installment stock, as you may select. Borrowers should simply notify their local Secretary or the General Manager of their acceptance of the change, as their stock is already here. Do not delay this, but help your company to get speedily on a safe, working basis. Show that you are wise enough to settle your own business without the aid of a court. Respectfully submitted,

HENRY BURNETT,

DEPARTMENT STORE BURNED.

Fire Causes a Quarter of a Million Dollar Loss at Streater, Ills.

STREATOR, Ills., Nov. 23.—The large department store of D. Heinan & Company, and several adjoining buildings, were destroyed by fire last night, entailing a loss of about $250,000. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp in the millinery department on the second floor, and started about 6:30 o'clock. A strong wind aided it spreading the fire to other departments and the whole interior of the 3-story structure was soon a seething furnace. The firemen then turned their attention to the surrounding buildings. The postoffice adjoined the store and was completely destroyed, the loss being about $2,000. H. F. Howland's furniture stock and building was on fire several times, as was the stores of M. Purcell & Company, dry goods and groceries; Julius Moses, clothing, and Abe Levy, boots and shoes, and the Union National bank. Plate glass windows for a block were ruined. D. Heinan & Company's loss is $200,000. Their insurance is not known definitely, but is estimated at about $25,000. Other losses are: H. F. Howland, $3,000; M. Purcell & Company, $2,500; Julius Moses, $2,000; Dr. C. R. Taylor, dentist, in Heinan building, $3,000; B. L. Keating, building and loan agent, $2,500. Most of the latter losses are covered by insurance.

BLACK EYE FOR GERMANY.

Russia's Blocking of the Turkish Naval Improvements.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 23.—The Turkish government announces the postponement until spring of its naval reorganization plans. This is undoubtedly due to the representations of Russia to the effect that arrears of the Turkish-Russian war indemnity are still due and that if Turkey persists in spending large sums of money upon the reconstruction of her navy Russia will insist upon the payment of these arrears.

Therefore, the announcement just made by the porte is equivalent to an indefinite shelving of the preparation to rebuild the Turkish navy and is a decided setback for the policy of Germany, the latter country having been extremely solicitous of taking part in rebuilding the Turkish fleet.

SELL TURKEYS BY THOUSAND.

Three Ohio Counties Expected to Furnish 25,000 For the Market.

WINCHESTER, O., Nov. 23.—The long-continued drouth has proved a great boon to poultry raisers in this section, and the shipments of turkeys exceeded any year in the past, one firm having already handled nearly 7,000, and that number will be double before the season closes.

A greater part of the turkeys are sent to Hillsboro, where they are dressed and then shipped east. It is estimated that at least 25,000 will be shipped from the three counties before Jan. 1.

Switchman's Shanty Demolished.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 23.—A car in an outgoing freight train on the Louisville and Nashville railroad jumped a switch in the yards here at 4 o'clock yesterday morning and tore down the switchman's shanty and car inspector's house. Both places were filled with men, negroes in the first and white men in the latter. The two houses were torn to splinters. A number were hurt. Will Washington, Henry Green and Will Kursee, colored switchmen, are in the infirmary seriously injured, while Thomas Moorefield, white, car inspector, was taken to his home injured about about the body.

Indications.

Showers in the morning, followed by fair weather in the afternoon; light northerly winds.

A foul breath is one of the greatest afflictions that a man or woman can have. An affliction not only to themselves, but to those with whom they come in contact. A foul breath is a great discourager of affection. It would probably be more so if people only realized just what bad breath means. Bad breath is one of the symptoms of constipation. Some of the other symptoms are sour stomach, loss of appetite, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, heartburn and distress after eating. These things mean indigestion. They lead to dyspepsia and worse things. They all start with constipation, and constipation is inexcusable because it can be cured—easily, quickly and permanently, by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They give to nature just the little help that she needs. There is no case of biliousness, constipation, indigestion, "heartburn," or any of the rest of the night-mare breeding brood, that these little Pellets will not cure.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tully and daughter Louise, of Cottageville, and Mrs. C. C. Degman, of Springfield, were pleasant guests of relatives at Mt. Welcome the latter part of the week.

The friends of Misses Maymie and Lizzie Adams are glad to know that their injury from the buggy collision while returning from the Hotze-Ryan nuptials consisted only in a severe fright.

Several from this neighborhood attended the entertainments given by Prof. Boggs at the Forest Avenue Church last week. The professor, who is highly worthy and deserving of patronage, is soliciting a class in music.

Flemingsburg had a large representation from this neighborhood Monday. A large crowd was reported in attendance, water not so scarce as the previous "big day," but plenty to eat, yet no relish for the famous bologna sausage.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c. or $1.00 per bottle at J. J. Wood's drug store.
